

Opening a Bank Account in Hawaii

How do I open a Bank Account in Hawaii?

- Your SSN (social security number) will allow you to open a local bank or eligible credit union account.
- Personal research can help you determine which bank will best meet your needs.
- You will be able to set up direct deposit of your paycheck at Hawaii Residency Program's (HRP) orientation in June if you already have a bank account.

Commonly used banks and credit unions include the following:

- Bank of Hawaii
- First Hawaiian Bank
- American Savings Bank
- Central Pacific Bank
- Territorial Savings
- University of Hawaii Federal Credit Union
- The Queen's Federal Credit Union
